

GLORIA OREN has been honing her craft since she graduated from the Long Ridge Writer's Group's "Breaking Into Print" course. Gloria is an active member of several online writer's groups and her local group the Redmond Association of SPokenword (RASP) where she often participates in open mike gatherings. She has had book reviews published in the Association of Jewish Librarian's newsletter and had won an honorable mention for her personal experience article submitted to a Byline's Magazine contest.